Misc.

1555

THE

LONDON SOCIETY

FOR

PROMOTING CHRISTIANITY

AMONGST THE JEWS

PRINTED BY P. ROSENZWEIG

JERUSALEM

1879

SEMINARY RESEARCH LIBRARY
NEW YORK CITY

JERUSALEM MISSION

The following are the various means used for bringing the Gospel to bear upon the Jews in this City.

1. Christ Church.

In the Hebrew Church on Mount Zion there is a daily Hebrew Service at six o 'clock in the morning in Summer, and at seven in Winter.

Sunday Services at 10 a m and at 7 30 p m in English.

Spanish Service at 7 30 a m.

German Services at 4 p m in Summer, and 3 p m in Winter.

With this Church are connected two Clergymen and two Lay Agents for carrying on the work among the Jews and the English speaking Residents.

2. Schools.

The Boys School, near the Church where 24

Jewish Boys are boarded and clothed, and where a large number of Jerusalem Boys are taught and partly fed.

The Girls School where a similar work is done among Jewish Girls.

3. The Inquirers Home.

Here Jewish Inquirers are provided with shelter while their sincerity is tested.

4. The Hospital.

Here sick Jews are treated for various complaints 31 beds being provided for them. Also large numbers of Out-Patients are attended to both at the Hospital and in their homes.

A Physician and a Surgeon, with Dispensers Nurses and others, form the Staff of the Hospital.

5. The house of Industry.

This is a home for young Converts where they are taught Trades and are provided with work.

6. The Jewesses' Work Room.

An Institution intended to provide Needle-work for poor Jewesses who are in need of such help.

7. The Book Store.

Here Bibles in various languages, and other useful books are sold.

8. The Bookbinding and Printing Shop.

Here books may be bound, and printing done; finding teaching and employment for young men.

---

By such methods and works carried on by voluntary Subscriptions the Society seeks to spread the knowledge of the Gospel among that people from whom the Church received the truth at the first.

Travellers interested in Christian work are invited to inspect the various parts of the work carried on in Jerusalem.